

Dear Sir/Madam,

The National Commission for the Promotion of Equality is currently offering forum theatre training sessions aimed at strengthening commitment towards equality which is one of the government's horizontal priority.

These training sessions form part of the project "Voice for All" which is working to raise awareness on the six grounds of discrimination, as well as, double and multiple discrimination.

The sessions will provide training on the six grounds of discrimination:

- age
- gender
- disability
- sexual orientation
- race
- religion

The objective of this training is to sensitise participants on the grounds of discrimination. Following training, participants will be in a better position to identify cases where discrimination is taking place. Participants will also be able of assessing the capacity of their work in creating equal opportunities.

This training session is organised specifically for journalists and other interested persons working within the media. Essentially, forum theatre is a form of problem-solving which encourages constructive thought. It aims at improving the quality of life by empowering participants to enhance their creativity by challenging stereotypes and discrimination.

Forum theatre training sessions shall take place on (to be announced) at (to be announced). The sessions shall be provided free of charge by experts in the field with several years of experience in forum theatre both in Malta and abroad. Participation is based on a first come first served basis. Places are limited.
