

Dear Sir/Madam,

The National Commission for the Promotion of Equality is currently offering forum theatre training sessions aimed at strengthening commitment towards equality which is one of the government's horizontal priority.

These training sessions form part of the project "Voice for All" which is working to raise awareness on the six grounds of discrimination, as well as, double and multiple discrimination.

The sessions will provide training on the six grounds of discrimination:

- age
- gender
- disability
- sexual orientation
- race
- religion

The objective of this training is to sensitise participants on the grounds of discrimination. Participants will be in a better position to assess the corporate and social responsibility and the capacity of company policies and standard procedures in creating an inclusive and dynamic work environment which promotes equal opportunities and maintains a competitive-edge.

This training session is organised specifically for directors, human resource managers, business development executives and other interested persons working in the private. Essentially, forum theatre is a form of problem-solving which encourages constructive thought. It aims at improving the quality of life by empowering participants to enhance their creativity by challenging stereotypes and discrimination.

Forum theatre training sessions shall take place on Tuesday 25th November (8.45 – 12.15) or Wednesday 10th December (8.45 – 12.15) at Intercontinental Malta. The sessions shall be provided free of charge by experts in the field with several years of experience in forum theatre both in Malta and abroad. Participation is based on a first come first served basis. Places are limited.
